At the pharmacy...Have you ever seen a senior refuse a prescription or pay just part of it because it costs too much?

At the grocery store...Have you ever noticed a senior ask the check-out cashier to take items back to reduce the total grocery bill due to lack of funds?

In your neighborhood...In the stifling, midday summer heat, have you ever noticed that windows are always open in a senior's home because the electricity has been turned off?

In challenging times, some seniors won't ask for help...Many seniors have worked hard all of their lives and paid their bills. But when an illness, an accident or economic hard times come, these seniors struggle in silence.

It is often left to friends, neighbors or caring strangers - to you - to notice their need.

Will you?

What can Helping Hands do?

Prescriptions - No senior should go without needed antibiotics, antiviral drugs or inhalers to treat a sudden onset illness. If a senior cannot pay for a prescription or co-pay for these types of drugs, funds are provided directly to the pharmacy to meet emergency needs. The pharmacist or senior can call us at 626-2500.

Food - No senior should go without enough food to maintain weight and health. If a senior cannot afford enough to eat, call us.

Short-term food help can be obtained through a one-time grocery store gift card.
