Two members of the Council cannot vote on this variance because they have a voting conflict due to the proximity of their homes to the project. Town Attorney Rubin stated that this is a very uncommon situation.

Councilmember Greene questioned if Town Councils in other municipalities sit as the Zoning Board of Adjustment and Appeals.

Mayor Haselkorn asked Town Attorney Rubin provide additional explanation.

Town Attorney Rubin further explained that the Zoning Board of Adjustment and Appeals grants variances. He stated it takes 4 votes to grant a variance and with two Council Members not being able to vote, the applicant would have no chance to obtain a variance.
